

Portraying the Divine

Waterperry House
Saturday May 31st, 2008
9.30 – 5.00

A day of talks on the creative spirit by artists and writers, with the opportunity for a guided tour of the frescoes, and a great lunch with like minds (outside if the weather is fine) at the stately Georgian house set in Waterperry Gardens.

- Jeffery Courtney The hidden harmony in Piero della Francesca's 'Baptism'
- Linda Proud The nature of beauty
- Bruce Ramell The medium of music
- Cheryl Howeld *The octave in painting
- Pythagoras and Tagore's bird*

Fee £35 (£30 if booked before 15th May) including buffet lunch.

For a brochure and booking form contact Doreen Troman at Waterperry House, nr Wheatley OX33 1JZ.

phone: 01844 339391
info@ses-oxford.org.uk

School of Economic Science (Educational Charity no. 313115) - Oxford Branch