

Summer Evenings at Mandeville Place

Talks during August given by senior students in the School, speaking or performing from their direct experience in making philosophy practical within their fields.

Thursday 5th August Mr. Leith Brown

HOLISTIC HEALING - ENTROPY OR EVOLUTION?

Must we live with unavoidable stress or can we adapt and evolve physically, mentally and emotionally to meet the challenges of the environment? Leith Brown, physiotherapist, considers.

Thursday 12th August Mr. Martin Bloomfield

WHAT ON EARTH IS REAL?

Many great Eastern teachings suggest that 'All experiences are illusory' but what do they mean, and what really is real? Martin Bloomfield conducts a practical investigation into the reality and illusion of life and the creation.

Thursday 19th August Mr. Donald Lambie

PROGRESS & PROSPERITY WHERE PHILOSOPHY AND ECONOMICS MEET

Economic activity takes place when labour and land come together, but how do the prevailing philosophical ideas influence that meeting? Donald Lambie, Leader of the School of Economic Science, explores the impact of Philosophy on Economic Prosperity.

Thursday 26th August Mrs. Valery Rees

FEEDING THE FLAME

Philosophy abounds with metaphorical references to the soul as having fire and light, referring both to the heat of the emotions and to the qualities of clarity and intelligence.

Renaissance scholar Valery Rees examines this allegory and the insight it offers into human nature and aspiration.
