

MOZART BIRTHDAY CONCERT

6.00pm Sunday, January 30th 20011.

School of Economic Science, 11 Mandeville Place, W1U 3AJ

Mozart was born on January 27th 1756. 255 years later, his genius continues to captivate, to charm and to enthrall.

Keyboard Pieces

Songs, Operatic Arias and Duets

String Quintet in G minor, K.516

Introduced by David Ward, fortepiano and piano,
Jill Crehan and Gillian Thompson, sopranos,

The Ceruti Ensemble:

Peter Nall and Ben Harte, violins,
Dan Cornford and Rebecca Harte, violas,
Lucy Nall, cello.

I often tell my students, when they are depressed by the world, that there are two things that make my life worth living -Mozart and quantum mechanics.

(Victor F. Weisskopf - The Privilege of Being a Physicist)

Places at £10 may be booked by phoning 020 7034 4000 or at the Mandeville Office and at the door on the night.

Wine, fruit juice and nibbles will be served during the interval.

All welcome